The current judicial system of Iran

Iniranlawyers.com

Head of the Judiciary appointed by the leader

Supreme Court

Revision of the verdict issued by the Criminal Court 1

Appeal from some final verdicts of the public and provincial courts

Supreme Court Decision as a Unified Judicial Precedent

Chief Justice

General Staff

Revocation of regulations

The specialized staff consists of 15 judges

Provincial Court of Appeals

Revision of the verdict issued by the primary courts (final verdict)

Criminal Courts of Grade 1 (3 judge)

Initial handling of heavy crimes such as murder- Rape

Revision of the verdict issued by the Courts of Grade 2 (final verdict)

Military court 1

Revolutionary Court

(3 judge)

Revision Branches

Administrative court of justice Primitive Branch

Claims over 200 million rials

Legal Public Courts

Claims over 200 million rials

Proceeding against council votes (final verdict)

Family Dispute Courts

Criminal Courts of Grade 2 (1 judge)

Children's Court

Military court 2

Prosecutor's Office

Criminal complaint

The complaints of people against government officials, departments and government regulations are against the law

Objection to the votes of municipal commissions

Tax dispute resolution boards

Labor and Employee Dispute Resolution Boards...

Dispute Resolution Councils

Under the jurisdiction of 200 million Rials

Claims below 200 Million Rials